OUR COVER

Paul Downing has been producing advertising art, logos, cartoons and signage in the Lewis County area for over 30 years.

After moving here from Vashon Island in 1971, Paul received his AA degree in commercial art from Centralia College. After graduation, a job was waiting for him at the Yard Birds in their Advertising Department. He worked there 23 years creating promotions, cartooning and signage. Due to changes in the retail market and debt from two major floods, the Yard Birds became extinct. Paul then started his own business. His business is called "Downing Design".

Paul understands how to communicate image and excitement thru superior graphics. His son, Bill, has followed in his dad's footsteps and is part of the creative team at "Matautia Design" in Olympia.

Little Miss Friendly

Dear Little Miss Friendly Contestant,

Welcome to the Southwest Washington Fair Little Miss Friendly program. While this program will be a lot of fun for the new Little Miss Friendly, it also takes a great deal of dedication for the young lady and her family. Little Miss Friendly will spend six (6) long days at the fair, participate in parades, and attend various coronations, teas, and promotions throughout the year. Her parents will be her official chaperone and are expected to attend all functions with her.

While serving as Little Miss Friendly, she will wear the official sash and cape (weather permitting) at all times when representing the fair. Any appearance representing the fair MUST be scheduled through the LMF Coordinator. Serving as Little Miss Friendly takes a lot of time. It will be very busy, but will be both a lot of fun and a great learning experience for the lucky young lady who becomes Little Miss Friendly 2005!
